Slavery and Human Trafficking

At ANS we aspire to be the UK's leading Cloud Service Provider of choice. We aim to ensure that the services we provide embed excellence into both our own and our customer's business, whilst maximising the Return on Investment and creating business opportunities.

We always aspire to be recognised as being a trustworthy, open, honest, and ethical organisation. Therefore ANS is committed to supporting an ethical approach to procurement and environmental sustainability in the supply chain.

ANS understands its legal requirements and obligations around its conduct regarding the protection of human and labour rights; including combatting modern slavery in our supply chains.

In order to support that commitment ANS will continue to commit to the continual improvement of all our supplier procedures and to the review and due diligence of our supplier base across this financial year 2021 -2022.

This review includes:

- Documented procedural and policy assessment
- Risk Assessment
- Supplier Assessment
- Supplier Diligence Questionnaires
- Internal training program (as required)
- Expanded CSR review

ANS have currently deployed the following policies (available on request)

- Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy
- Equal Opportunities Policy

ANS hold the following externally verified ISO Certification:

- ISO 9001: 2015 Quality Management System
- ISO 27001: 2013 Information Security Management System
- ISO 27017: 2015 Data Security in the Cloud
